Profile

Gon joined OLN as a trainee solicitor in 2016. He has experience in various litigation matters including insolvency, shareholders disputes, commercial dispute, tortious claims and criminal proceedings and was involved in a number of high-profile cases in the Court of First Instance and the Court of Appeal. He also has extensive experience in various corporate and commercial matters including restructuring, due diligence, general commercial transactions involving the hospitality industry, trading and also cross-border property transactions.

Prior to joining OLN, Gon worked at a Big Four accounting firm focusing on international arbitration research and insolvency.

Tax Advisory Experience

Assisted a high-net-worth client to handle contentious trust matter and successfully reached settlement with fellow beneficiaries to resolve the dispute amicably, including the process on settlement negotiation, drafting of Deed of Family Arrangement and execution of settlement, so as to reinforce checks and balance among different trust entities and ensure the family trust is compliant with the Canadian Granny Trust structure.
