

INSOLVENCY AND RESTRUCTURING LAW

We have extensive experience in both insolvency and restructuring work, and have represented appointment takers, banks, other creditors, creditors' committees and debtors.

We have advised creditors who have successfully petitioned the court to place the respondent company into compulsory liquidation and obtained orders to appoint provisional liquidators pre-winding-up to safeguard assets in jeopardy.

We have advised insolvent practitioners on the innumerable problems they can face when taking up office and helped them navigate through the law and procedure in this specialist area, and find commercial solutions to seemingly intractable problems.

OUR SERVICES

We advise on the following Insolvency and Restructuring matters:

- Advising on cross-border jurisdictional issues

A modern office interior featuring a vibrant red lounge chair with a curved backrest and a metal base. On the wall, there is a large, three-dimensional sculpture of the firm's name, 'OLDHAM, LI & NIE', and below it, a smaller plaque that reads 'In Association With Watson & Tang'. The background is a dark, textured wall with recessed lighting.
